

Eddy Current/Magnetic Separater Belts

Automotive recycling yards use this belt on their magnetic separators to separate metal parts from nonmetal parts.

The belt is designed with one tracking guide and one vanner edge on the top surface sometimes with one cross cleat which knocks the metal parts held by the magnetized pulley from the belt into a recycling bin.

Belts can be made out of PVC or Urethane to handle different levels of abrasion

Sales@DercoUSA.com

www.DercoUSA.com

Phone: 800-761-2358

Fax: 302-452-2505

728 Dawson Dr. Newark, DE 19713

Derco USA is located in Newark, Delaware. Our 50,000 square foot facility is stocked with the equipment, inventory, and accessories needed to accommodate almost any type of custom belt manufacturing, from open-end pieces and full slabs to cleat and sidewall belts used in a variety of applications.